

April 18, 2015 - BREAKING NEWS

A police report has been posted with regard to the cyber bullying of Christine Sirgent now joined by her partner Joshua Clark. Material related to the case - has been turned over to the police authorities. Addresses and employment records of These individuals will be pursued as attempts at fraud, blackmailing and defamation will not be tolerated.

The foundation has more than adequate proof to expose the identity of this individual and her partner. Further, clients are never seen in our offices without the presence of security staff present at the office. Security staff was on the premises of the office at the time that the individual(s) in question were seen.

The Board Of The Foundation For The Child Victims Of The Family Courts